

FSLA

financial services lawyers association

www.fsla.org.uk

aims: provide a forum for open exchanges of views on topical issues in financial services law, regulation and related areas // facilitate the dissemination of knowledge and ideas // further members' education and training // encourage the involvement of students, graduates, trainees, pupils and junior lawyers // foster co-operation between the various financial services stakeholders, including practitioners, academics, industry, regulators and government.

register your membership

- your organisation has joined FSLA, the financial services lawyers association
- register for free on our website to get access to:
 - // talks, training and social events
 - // our online forum
 - // the directory of members
- just go to www.fsla.org.uk
- click on join us > individual membership
- fill in the form and we'll do the rest
- any questions? email fsla@fsla.org.uk